DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgments

1. Acknowledgment is made of the IDS filed 8/21/03 and the amendment filed 7/24/03.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1-17 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claims 1 and 8 recite the limitation "another pipe" and then later refer to as "the other pipe". This terminology can be confusing and should be changed, for example, "a second pipe" and "said second pipe". Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

4. Claims 1-3 and 5-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nakanishi (6,450,459 B2).

Nakanishi discloses a vehicle conductive fuel and brake pipe clamp 1 comprised of a conductive synthetic resin for coupling the fuel feed and return pipes in parallel (which conventionally extend between an engine and fuel tank) and the brake lines in parallel, and attached to a vehicle body, further, since the clamp is detachable, any one of the pipes can be detached and in turn become electrically independent from the vehicle body, as shown in figures 1-5 and recited in column 2, lines 33-37.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakanishi, as applied to claim 1.

Nakanishi does not disclose the resin as being carbon black. The use of a specific material is not patentable unless it produces an unexpected result, see In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233 (CCPA 1955). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have used carbon black to make the clamp in order to achieve a desired strength and resistance to temperature.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed 7/24/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. With respect to the applicant's arguments concerning amended claims 1 and 8, the added language further defining the electrical state of the vehicle relative to the pipe clamp does not define over the reference to Nakanishi as such is explicitly taught by Nakanishi as its intended use.

With respect to the added claim language, Nakanishi discloses the clamp as being a flexible synthetic, conductive resin material able to join a plurality of fuel and brake lines in column 5, lines 51-69.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hahn and Picco et al. both disclose pipe clamps of interest.

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 3618

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
